PUBLIC OPINION SETTING STRONGLY AGAINST COL. FELLOWS.

"Welcher" and a Friend of Bo Tweed's Not Wanted in the District-At--Excuses Considered Ridieroofs Everywhere of Nicoll's Strength—To-Night's Bally.

OTHING on earth can now stop the eyelone of popular indignation over the attempt of Boss Power and the Police Justices' ring

1 to force Col. J. R. Fellows into the chair of District-Attorney Martine. The storm cloud broke yesterday with terrific force after the revelations of how Col. Fellows borrowed money from Tweed and pleaded the gambling act to avoid pay. ment of a debt. Beg-ne money of "my old friend Tweed, who often aided me before," on the of the disagreement of the trial jury in Boss Tweed's case and playing the rôle of a "welcher" in repudiation of a debt incurred over a poker table, were not acts, people said, which could commend Col. Fellows, who says he was rather inexperienced at forty-three years of age when these things happened, to the approval of the people. The general expression now is that Col. Fellows is done for.

The people—the friends of De Lancey Micoll—who were baffled temporarily by Boss Power & Co., are proportionately jubilant and gleeful, and that the prosecutor of Sharp and the boodlers will be elected by an overwhelming majority is now the prediction heard on every side.

Mickel buttons, the shining emblems of the Nicoll men, were in greater demand than ever last night and this morning, and there are now probably 50,000 voters of this city/on whose coats gleam the simple mark of their faith and purpose for honest government and the punishment of boodlers of high and low degree.

Men who back their judgment with money in Boss Tweed's case and degree.

Men who back their judgment with money—in other words, the betting fraternity who make their living by keeping so well informed that they are able to bet to win against the amateur—are to-day offering handsome odds against the backers of Col. Fellows. They know too well the temper of the people to think for an instant that so important an office can be won by a "welcher" and a man who borrowed from "his old frisnd," Boss Tweed, the biggest thief of the century.

and a man who borrowed from "his old friend," Boss Tweed, the biggest thief of the century.

Tammany Hall was obliged to accept Fellows at the command of the sneering bosses of the County Democracy, but since the disclosures of yesterday they have tried hard to persuade Power and the rest of the ring of the foolhardiness of keeping him in the field. As yet they have been unsuccessful, but the voters of Tammany will effectually protest against this boss tyranny next Tuesday by casting vest-pocket ballots for Nicoll.

It has been falsely stated that the Harlem Young Men's Democratic Club was unanimously for Fellows. At the great mass-meeting for De Lancey Nicoll to be held to-night at the Harlem Temple in East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, fully one-half the members of that organization will help to ratify the nomination of the young prosecutor and to enter their protest against the promotion of one who was an "old friend" of Boss Tweed's, at forty-three, and was that thing detestable among men of honor, a "welcher." at the youthful and giddy age of forty-five years, in 1876.

Col. S. V. R. Oruger, Chairman of the Republican County Committee, said to-day to an Evenne World reporter: "There is no doubt in my mind of Mr. Nicoll's election. He will have a large plurality and I think the entire Citizens' and Republican toket will be elected. Mr. Nicoll will get a heavy Democratic vote in the Seventh, Nint, Eleventh, Thirteenth, Ninteenth, Nint, At the olock last evening Boss Power, Boss Croker and ex Mayor Edward County because his time on the force did not include twenty years of actual service. The Supreme Court decides that twenty years of actual service is what the law contemplates, but dashes Bolster's cause by adding that he can be retired only on a majority vote. The decision breaks the force of the sppeal of captains and sergeants who are asking reinstatement—the plea in several notable instances being that their term of service did not include twenty continuous years.

The decision which restores Officer Thomas McBride to service places the Commissioners in an embarrassing position concerning a dismissal for drunkenness. McBride's excuse was that his dazed condition was due to certain medicines which he used as a cure for rheumatism, contracted in the discharge of duty. He saved a score of persons from drowning and caught cold from frequent baths in the North River as a life-saver. As it was not proven that he as a life-saver. As it was not proven that he did not use the medicine or that he had been seen to drink, the Supreme Court reinstated him with full back pay since February.

HER BODY COVERED WITH BRUISES.

Suspicious Circumstances About the Death of an Ex-Convict's Wife.

A young woman, the eight-months' bride of an ex-convict, Adolphus Smith, died on Thursday morning at 92 James street, under somewhat suspicious circumstances. Mrs. Amanda Smith, the dead woman, had not found her domestic relations with her husband entirely happy. She complained at times of his choking and kicking her. The pair were both hard kicking her. The pair were both hard drinkers, Mrs. Smith was under the influence of liquor the day before she died. Her husband threw his mother out of the room at 2 o'clock on Thursday morning and she slept in the hallway. When she entered Mrs. Smith's room at 10 she found her dead.

Deputy Coroner Herold, after making an examination, concluded that death was due to a kidney complaint. The woman had been ailing two weeks. Her body was covered with bruises which Mrs. Smith was understood to have ascribed to falling down stairs. An autopsy will be made this afternoon.

Promptly at 10 o'clock an individual with a German cast of countenance and enveloped in a long ulster presented a special permit to Otto Foltz, and was admitted within the iron door. It was his second visit to the jail. Last night he made his appearance for the first time in company with Capt. Black, but neither the "Mystery," as the reporters have dubbed him, nor the counsel would say anything concerning his identity. One story has it that he is an influential German editor from Detroit, and another that he is the representative of the New York Amnesty Society. Whoever he may be, however, his credentials were weighed in the balance and pronounced satisfactory by the prisoners, for he was cordially greeted by Spics and Parsons, who were the only ones in the cage when he was admitted this morning. Lingg vaulted over the iron railings of the corridor above and dropped to the floor, and then the visitor, who in the meantime had been reinforced by Editor Bergmann, of the Arbeiter Zeitung, claimed his attention. The conference was conducted in an undertone, but it was of a decidedly vigorous nature, for more than once he rapped his fist again and again on the iron bars when the Anarchist laughed in his face.

Next they tried to induce Spies to use his influence with his fellow prisoners, but he plainly said that he didn't care to interfere. After leaving the jail they captured Nina Van Zandt and Spies's mother on the sidewalk and urged them to try and bring the recalcitrants into line.

THE TORN UP STREETS

And Some of the Disasters to Life Which They Have Occasioned.

For months the streets of New York have been rocking with poisonous odors. These deadly gases have come from the exposed sewer pipes, gas pipes and from the turned-up soil saturated with malaria. Every breath drawn has carried some of these death germs into the body. At first the effect is only one of disgust at a disagrecable odor but in a few days dull pains in the limbs, heaviness odor but in a few days dull pains in the limbs, heaviness in the head, a tired feeding, lack of appetite, feverialmess and hundreds of other symptoms are certain to show themselves. They prove that poison has taken root and malaria is intrunched in the body.

But the important question to us all is how to prevent malarial disease, or, having contracted it, how it can be cured. Every one knows that the best physicians allowed.

cured. Every one knows that the best physicians al-ways prescribe a stimulant for such troubles. Nature must be assisted and pure stimulants alone can do it. But unless they are pure, instead of assisting, they will injure. Prof. Henry A. Mett, of this city, says: "The purity of Duffy's Pure Malt Wilskey (as simple tests will readily convince) should recommend it to the highest partition of convince) should recommend it to the highest and its own and the convince of the highest and its absolute purity must recommend it to general use. "

When the pulse beats feebly when the life seems low; when pains shoot through the body and make existence a burden, do not take drugs. They cannot hop you. Take a pure and life-imparting stimulant, and the only reliable one in the market is Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey. It has stood the test of years. It is more popular to-day then ever. It will invariably drive out malaris and it is the only known preparation that will. It is said universally, but care should be exercised to take none but Duffy's for its pspularity and power have raised up enemies who try to substitute unworthy and poissones compounds in its place. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Weakness, Nervousness and Prostration, FIHESE affections exist among all classes, and are confined to no particular age, the young, middle sged and old being alike subject to their depressing in nees. Persons wonder at their feeling of exhaus tion, lassitude and lack of inclination for physical or mental exertion. Where before there was a strong and vigorous nerve power, there is now a sense of weaknes anguer and dulness. This is often especially noticeab feeling. The night's rest, which should have retreshed the system and restored strength and vigor to the nerve leaves the person more tired and exhausted than on re-GRADUAL Thousands of persons are from prostration of nerve power. They become nervous, sleepless, weak and prostrated, have pains and aches in head, back or side, cold feet and limbs, with tired feel-ing all the time, and they sllow the debilitating, nervous isease to run on, not realizing the serious and alarming suits which are sure to follow, for a gradual breaking fown of the whole system will cortainly result. Re build, strengthen and invigorate the nerve powers in such cases by the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura Nerve Tonic, and the whole system soon becomes strong again: the norves grow calm and steady, unlimited work can b endured, and health, with renewed energies and vigor, takes the place of weakness and prostration. Exhausted Nervous Vitality and Nervous

Debility.

Business men, whose prosperity depends upon their clearness of brain and mind, find their mental strength impaired and their endurance and power to work di-minished. Professional men, students and clerks, whose brains, being constantly active, require a more than ordinary amount of neve force, often find their power of thought decreased. Where formerly they could endure many consecutive hours of close application of the mind, they now find that the thoughts wander, and there i inability to fix the mind for any length of time upon on subject. Accompanying this there is weakness and ex haustion, and an extreme nervous and irritable condition, a dull, cloudy sensation, often accompanied by disagreeable feelings in the head and eyes.

DESPONDENCY,
MENTAL DEPRESSION. With exhausted
